

PReS Bursary Application

PReS is pleased to offer travel bursaries to PReS members who require support to attend the PReS congress.

Application should be submitted to pres2016.regshot@mci-group.com no later than Friday 2 September 2016.

To apply for a bursary please provide:

- Motivation letter
- CV
- Details of publications and/or abstract accepted for presentation at the PReS 2016 Congress

PReS Travel grant:

A travel grant of EUR 200 is available for PReS members of less than 45 years; priority will be given to members coming from lower income countries.

The amount of the travel grant should be collected in cash during the PReS Congress.

All congress-related expenses are the responsibility of the travel grant recipient.

Hardship bursary:

The hardship bursary of EUR 500 is available for PReS members from medium-low and low-income countries.

The amount of the hardship bursary should be collected in cash during the PReS Congress.

All congress-related expenses are the responsibility of the bursary recipient.